

For next time

Write the Materials and Methods section of your lab report. This assignment will not be collected but, by writing it now, you will have time to get some feedback if you want it and you will stay on track for completing the lab report which is due next week.