

Strategic Questions from Michael Armstrong, Chairman of Comcast Corp.

1. Is the current audit committee involvement-structure-time adequate for the oversight and review responsibility now expected of large public companies?
2. What responsibility should a Board hold itself to for business resiliency in light of 9-11?
3. Do Board Director age or term limits make sense versus individual assessments of independence, experience and contribution?