

Assessment Assignment

Think about the class that you are observing and a topic that you have seen taught there. Select at least two "alternative" assessment techniques (as described in "Changing Assessment Practices"). Compare and contrast how these different assessment techniques would be implemented, and how well these forms of assessment provide information on what is actually being learned. Include in this comparison how these alternative assessments would provide different information from traditional assessments, and the pros and cons of those differences.