

Prepare these questions for discussion in class for lecture #16.

1. What are the distinctive features of the planning problem in Heijplatt?
2. Which of these features pose the greatest challenge for your emerging understanding of the seven step model of planning practice?
3. What adjustments do these challenges require in terms of your understanding of the planner's role, the goals, the importance of interaction, and the actions that you would take?