Exercise 340 Modify your 1D Newton's method to find the basins of attraction of a interesting (degree > 3) polynomial. Plot the basin of attraction as before, but now you will have to create your initial value by `z=x+iy`. For the roots: either use a polynomial for which you know the roots, or find the roots in advance, by using your own Newton solver.

18.S997 Introduction To MATLAB Programming
Fall 2011