

Questions on Citizens United and 303 Creative

1. Why does Stevens say that ‘restrictions on [corporate] electioneering are less likely to encroach upon First Amendment freedoms’? Is there an important difference here between media corporations (e.g. the New York Times) and others? What does Abrams think?
2. What, according to the 303 majority opinion, is the difference between the Tenth Circuit’s legal reasoning and the argument Colorado presented to the Supreme Court?
3. According to the 303 dissent, ‘Once these features of the law are understood, it becomes clear that petitioners’ freedom of speech is not abridged in any meaningful sense, factual or legal’ (p. 58 of the pdf). What do you think?
