

Problem Set 2,

Problem 3.2

In the solutions the relation

$$\left(\frac{dl}{dT}\right)_p = \frac{1}{3V} \alpha$$ was used to solve the problem. Where the heck did this come from?

It is because the linear thermal expansion coefficient is the volumetric expansion coefficient, divided by 3:

Thermal Expansion