Joao Silva, Tightly-packed prisoners sleeping on the floor of a Malawi prison, 2005.

Image removed due to copyright restrictions. [View image on Wikipedia]
Stowage of the British slave ship Brookes under the Regulated Slave Trade Act of 1788.

LC-USZ62-34160
“A Negro Hung Alive by the Ribs to a Gallows.” Drawing by William Blake, 1796.
Jacob Riis
Jacob Riis, Bandit’s Roost, 1888.

All photos are presented courtesy of the National Child Labor Committee. They can be found online at the Library of Congress, Prints & Photographs Division, NCLC Collection, using the reference numbers listed on each page.
Lewis Hine, A nine year old newsgirl. She sold later than 8 P.M. sometimes. Been selling two years. Hartford, CT. March 6, 1909.