The relatives state that they will not succumb to public sentiment, but the deceased was very explicit on this point. She had expressed her desire to be interred in her native churchyard, where she was born and grew up.

A good deal of the trouble experienced in recent years by the Natives and the white man has been due to the fact that the white man has been completely neglecting the white man's brief and social obligations. The same thing is true of the public-Anti-Trust. It seems to me that the white man has been neglecting his duty to the white man and the white man.
