

	Evidence	Who is the student?	School culture (how were you greeted at the school? What are the defining elements? overall feeling? how culture is maintained?)	Academic focus and approach (transdisciplinary, interdisciplinary, career-focused, etc.)	Innovative teaching and learning (core practices, use of technology, student-centered approaches)	Program elements (classes, electives, how students spend their time)	Socio Emotional and Cultural Learning (SECL) (advisories, student support, cultural learning)	Professional Development (how are teachers supported and what PD opportunities are available)	Community Engagement (student and school engagement with other organizations, internships, collaborations, projects...)	Assessment (assessment in the classroom, reporting, use of portfolios, etc.)	Funding (how do programs get funded? Does the school do fundraising, grants, etc.)	Design principles (key design principles for the school– what defines the school? Identify principles from the Curriculum Architecture and class with Rob Riordan and Bakhtiar Mikhak)	Other:	Notes
#1
#2
#3
#4
#5
#6
#7
#8
#9
#10

MIT OpenCourseWare
<https://ocw.mit.edu/>

CMS.S61 STEAM Learning Architecture: A Framework for Educational Innovation
Spring 2024

For information about citing these materials or our Terms of Use, visit: <https://ocw.mit.edu/terms>.