The Things They Carried Exercise in Collective Autobiography

Take about ten minutes to complete this exercise.

1. List up to ten physical items MIT students typically have in their backpacks or their rooms. Then add up to five psychological “things” or weights they also carry.

2. Using a style like that of O’Brien, write a paragraph, commenting on these “things”, both physical and psychological.