Working With Images of the Future Self

Write for about five minutes:

Envision yourself in this room twenty years from now, having returned for a visit as an alumnus of MIT. What do you imagine you will look like? What kind of work do you think you will be doing? Will you have a spouse/partner, child(ren)? How do you imagine you will feel about your life?