In-class writing sample

In 1959 CP Snow Warned of an increasing gap in communication and mutual appreciation between people primarily educated in science/engineering and those educated in the humanities. What harm do you see it causing? How can education contribute to bridging the gap?

From: