Defining Rhetoric

• Plato: Rhetoric is "the art of winning the soul by discourse."

• Aristotle: Rhetoric is "the faculty of discovering in any particular case all of the available means of persuasion."

• Cicero: Rhetoric is “speech designed to persuade.”

• Quintillian: "Rhetoric is the art of speaking well."

• Francis Bacon: Rhetoric is the application of reason to imagination "for the better moving of the will."

• George Campbell: “[Rhetoric] is that art or talent by which discourse is adapted to its end. The four ends of discourse are to enlighten the understanding, please the imagination, move the passion, and influence the will.”
Defining Rhetoric

- John Locke: [Rhetoric,] that powerful instrument of error and deceit.

- Sappho: Persuasion is Aphrodite's daughter: it is she who beguiles our mortal hearts
