Study Guide for Cicero’s De Inventione and Roe vs. Wade

1. Focus your reading mainly on the first two chapters of the section (Chapters VIII and IX).
   a. Cicero uses what is called Stasis theory to determine in any dispute – what points are at issue.
   b. The four classes of points-at-issue are:
      i. Fact
         1. Past
         2. Present
         3. Future
      ii. Definition
         1. Types of Definition
            a. Go back to Aristotle, Chapter 5 look how happiness is defined in two different ways
               i. External – different types of the whole term
               ii. Analytic – the parts of the whole
            b. Analogy
            c. Categorization and differentiation
      iii. Value
         1. Dispute over the qualitative evaluation of an act or thing
         2. Competing Goods
      iv. Jurisdiction
         1. Who should decide the issues?
2. Apply these categories to Roe v. Wade
   a. Write down issues of
      i. Fact
      ii. Definition
      iii. Value
      iv. Jurisdiction