I.  Reading(s)

Read the article cited above and be prepared to discuss the content in class. Provide an answer to the following questions in a 2-3 page response paper.

1. What is the significance of the State St. Bank & Trust Co. v Signature Finance Group, Inc case from 1998 on the US patent system?
2. In recent years, patents have increasingly been viewed as a powerful financial asset in industry. In what ways, if any, do the uses of patents as investment “capital” deviate from the intent of patents as put forth in Article 1 Section 8 of the US Constitution.
3. Provide a case for or against patent trolling. What impact do you believe that patent trolling has on the overall US economy?
4. How does the current environment for patents in corporations as described in Abril impact the small inventor in the US?
5. Explain your position on whether or not we are heading in the right direction with patent policy in the United States. Support your explanation.
