Citing Documents from the Web: Bibliography

Treat them as you would a paper document.
Include as much information as you can:

- Author
- Title of the site
- Sponsor of site
- URL
- Date you accessed the site (Chicago Style does not require)

When no author is named, treat the sponsor as the author.

_________

CMS examples

_________

APA examples

Consult your style guide for the various permutations of this.

The point is to provide as much information as possible so that your reader could find the source if s/he wanted to.
21G.228 / 21G.227 Advanced Workshop in Writing for Social Sciences and Architecture (ELS)
Spring 2007

For information about citing these materials or our Terms of Use, visit: http://ocw.mit.edu/terms.