Can Design

There are many factors to consider in food packaging, including marketing, durability, cost and materials. In this problem we minimize the cost of materials for a can.

Find the height and radius that minimizes the surface area of a can whose volume is 1 liter = 1000 cm$^3$. 