Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Positional Power or the Power of Legitimate Authority
  - “You do what I say because I’m the boss - that’s why!”
  - “Like it or not - that’s the law.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

◆ Rewards

- “He bought his way in…”
- “Do whatever he says - you’ll be glad you did.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Sanctions
  - “She said she would just sue me...”
  - “If you continue to make these mistakes - at very least it means a demotion.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Force
  - “I will get you…and your children, if you continue…”
  - “This assignment isn’t safe for a woman - we can’t send you there.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

Information

- “He was able to get us the information we needed about what our competition is planning for the next year.”
- “You think you’re being paid fairly? Let me tell you what others are making.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

Expertise

- “She is the most important employee here - she is the only person who really knows how the data system works.”
- “I don’t care if there’s a hiring freeze. Get me someone who knows about interoperability.”

Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Charisma - referent authority - moral authority
  - “People would just stop what they were doing and watch him and listen to him and do their best to support whatever he wanted done.”
  - “It was scary. But I got to my feet and said, ‘You must stop this.’ And he did.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Commitment
  - “She just never gave up. She camped outside his office night and day until finally he had to listen.”
  - “We will go to the mat on this one - let there be no mistake. It’s this or a strike.”
Sources of Power in Negotiations

- Relationship - power gained or power lost
  - “Friends come and go - enemies accumulate forever.”
  - “I know her and she is the only person I will deal with on this matter.”

Sources of Power in Negotiations

- BATNA - the best alternative to a negotiated agreement
  - “They had all the time in the world and lots of other customers - they did not need us.”
  - “The worst that can happen is that I will just go back where I came from. I might even like that.”
